Dear Applicant,

Come to Rosebud and Live The Theatre!

We are a unique Canadian faith-based theatre school that challenges you to live a journey of discovery in a community of working artists. Join us and Live the Theatre! Live courageously through the highs and lows of faith and artistic endeavours. Live rigorously to meet the demands of training your body, voice, mind and spirit. Live in intentional community alongside fellow students, visiting artists, instructors and mentors. Live fully and honestly in all of your fears, successes, strengths and weaknesses. Live with hope as a believer or as one searching in a confusing world. Above all live the adventure of an artist capable of vast creation in a world that is in need of those who have a powerful voice rooted in the faith.

This letter marks the beginning of your exploration into what our school offers. Contained in this package is an Academic Calendar that outlines our programmes as well as an application form. In Rosebud we require applicants to participate in a Scout Week. This is one week for you to live and learn with us so that you can make the most informed decision possible. A Scout Week can happen at almost any time of the year when most suitable for both you and us. Contact me to set up your own Scout Week in Rosebud.

Again I invite you to Live The Theatre! I hope you take up the challenge. And I hope you choose to live your journey of discovery in our beautiful valley.

Sincerely yours,

APPLICATION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

The application form can be downloaded online at www.rosebudschoolofthearts.com.

Applicants are asked to submit the following forms:

- I. Personal data
- II. Education history
- III. Transcript records
- IV. Personal statement
- V. Three (3) reference forms
- VI. Recent photograph of yourself
- VII. Application fee of $125.00. This fee also covers scout week costs and is non-refundable.
- VIII. Theatre resume (optional), showing a summary of roles and/or technical positions and previous training.
- IX. Signature & date

Send the application to:

Rosebud School of the Arts
Attention: Heather Zacharias, Recruitment Officer
Box 654
Rosebud, AB T0J 2T0
CANADA

REFERENCES

Ask three people to fill out and mail in the reference form. The references should be a variety of people who know you well at this point in your life, for example a teacher, employer, or friend. Please do not ask family members to fill out the reference.

References should be chosen to fulfill two purposes:

- To provide evidence of previous accomplishments in the arts and other fields
- To provide a character reference in terms of spiritual growth and work habits

Referees send the form directly to Rosebud School of the Arts where they remain confidential.

TRANSCRIPTS

You will need to request a transcript of grades from your high school and other educational institutions you attended. Call Alberta Education at 310-000 to request your high school transcript. On-line requests do NOT work for Rosebud School of the Arts. Please allow the institution sufficient time to process and send your transcript directly to Rosebud School of the Arts. Many schools require a small fee for this service.

SCOUT WEEK

You are invited to come for a week and discover Rosebud for yourself – audit classes, see a show at Rosebud Theatre, work in hospitality, experience small town life, ask all your questions, reflect on the direction your life is meant to take. By the end of the week, you may sense if Rosebud is the right place for your growth as a Christian artist. Scout weeks are offered throughout the year at times suitable for both the school and the applicant.

Schedule

Scouts usually settle into accommodation on Monday evening and leave Saturday morning, unless a shorter week is arranged. The week is filled with various activities designed to give scouts ample opportunity to discover Rosebud and to meet the staff and students. Scouts are scheduled to observe classes – for example, choir and acting – as they are offered, and they will attend a dinner and theatre performance. Scouts may be asked to assist with some of the daily tasks of a working dinner and theatre. An interview and talent assessment rounds out the week.

Talent Assessment

For the talent assessment, please prepare a one to three minute monologue and a song. The monologue can be taken from a play, film, scripture, or poem; do not perform a piece that you have written yourself. The song will be sung a cappella; no music accompaniment is provided.

AFTER SCOUT WEEK

When you will return home and let your thoughts and experiences sink in, we ask that you contact the Recruitment Officer to inform us whether or not to proceed with your application. If you'd like to proceed, your application is forwarded to the Education Team who makes a decision about your acceptance. You are informed of the decision through a mailed letter from the Registrar. Applications received after May 1st will be determined on programme availability. You may defer your acceptance for one year.

TUITION DEPOSIT

Once you are accepted into the programme, a non-refundable tuition deposit of $250 is due June 30 to secure your enrollment. The deposit is made out to Rosebud School of the Arts and sent to Box 654, Rosebud AB, T0J 2T0.

SPECIAL CASES

Transfer Students

RSA welcomes applications for Mentorship level 1 and level 2 from students who have taken training elsewhere equivalent to RSA's Certificate in Theatre Foundations or Mentorship Programme level 1. As a conservatory-based training programme, RSA accepts transfer credit on a block basis only.

Mature Students

Special admission may be granted to adult students without a high school diploma, if the student is at least 21 years of age, has appropriate work or volunteer experience and has been out of school for a minimum of two years. A General Equivalency Diploma (GED) is recommended.

Home-Schooled Students

RSA welcomes students from a home-schooling background. The applicant's readiness for RSA programmes can be demonstrated in one of two ways:

1. General Equivalency Diploma (GED) with a score of 450 or higher in Language Arts – Writing, Language Arts – Reading, and Social Studies.
2. A portfolio that meets RSA requirements. An explanation of RSA's portfolio requirements are available on request.

Part-time Students

Training at Rosebud requires a full-time commitment. Part-time study is not possible towards the completion of a particular programme. Registration for Open Studies may be considered if the applicant's abilities and circumstance warrant special consideration.

Students with Disabilities

RSA welcomes students with disabilities who meet current academic and programme admission standards. RSA makes its best effort to accommodate the needs of qualified students with disabilities. Students must note on their application any special needs or limitations and give an accurate account of their medical and/or psychological history, so that the Rosebud staff can make appropriate accommodation.

Experience has demonstrated that applicants who inform of us of their needs up-front generally experience little trouble during the school year and are successful in their studies. Applicants who try to "down-play" their condition do not fare as well. Rosebud School of the Arts expects truthful communication from parents as well as students. You are assured that your needs will be treated with respect and confidentiality.

International Students

International students are welcome at Rosebud School of the Arts. RSA requires that students demonstrate an adequate level of speaking and writing in English. Students need to understand English sufficiently to participate in all aspects of classes, including lectures, reading, writing, and discussion. English competency is assessed through the interview and written component of the application process.

The process of entering Canada and obtaining a study permit is described in detail on the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website at www.cic.gc.ca. Read through all the instructions on obtaining a study visa. Call or e-mail RSA if you have questions.
