INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS TUITION AND FEES

Details available under International Students. [\[link\]](#)

OUTSTANDING ACCOUNTS

The policy for late payment applies to tuition, fees, and any other cost owed to RSA.

1. Dismissal from the programme unless a payment plan is set up.
2. For each successive month that the account has not been paid in full, interest will be charged on the total amount owing of 2.5% the first month and 1% every month thereafter.
3. Students with outstanding accounts will not be allowed to register in subsequent terms.
4. Students with outstanding accounts will not be allowed to attend the study trip.
5. Official acknowledgment of programme completion is withheld until outstanding fees and other accounts with Rosebud Centre of the Arts are paid in full.
6. Transcripts and evaluations will not be released until outstanding accounts have been paid in full.

PAYMENT DEFERRAL

A student who presents evidence of a sponsorship, scholarship, or student loan is eligible for payment deferment. Evidence must be presented each term.

Failure to provide this confirmation on or before the payment deadline (each term) may result in the cancellation of the student's registration. If granted a deferral, interest will still be charged.

A partial deferral may occur if monthly post-dated cheques are presented on or before the deadline date for tuition and fee payments for each term. If granted a partial deferral, interest will still be charged.

REFUND

If for whatever reason, a student is dismissed or needs to withdraw from the programme, tuition and fees will be reassessed for the term in which the withdrawal occurs. Fees and tuition will be refunded as follows:

- Start of semester to end of first month: 75% of tuition and fees returned
- Start of second month to end of second month: 50% of tuition and fees returned
- Start of third month to end of term: 0% returned

Mandatory fees and study trip fees will not be refunded.

Credit on the Show and Textbook account will be refunded.
